Off-Site Sign Ordinance Passes on First Reading

The city council last night passed on a split 3-2 vote an off-site sign ordinance, requiring that off-site signs be removed over a period of time.

The council acted after lengthy discussion with Councilwoman Mae O'Harra and Councilman George C. Mueller dissenting.

The ordinance was proposed by the planning commission several weeks ago. The council must pass it again on second reading at its Aug. 16 meeting.

WHEN IT GOES into effect here it would provide that all off-site signs valued at up to $100 must be taken down at once.

Signs with a permit value of from $100 to $500 would have to be removed within one year from the date of the ordinance. Signs with a permit value of more than $500 would have to be removed after two years.

In the proposed ordinance, off-site signs are defined as any sign not on the immediate premises of the advertiser, which had been erected for the purpose of advertising, describing or giving notice of a use, product interest or other thing or information. It includes any sign on public property or right-of-way.

The ordinance would provide the building department director may authorize erection of off-site signs and signs on public right-of-way or public property referring to or giving direction to public and semipublic facilities. However, the signs

Anyone is welcome to sit in on a meeting this (Aug. 3) afternoon at 2 in city hall for a discussion of the proposed street improvement program here. City Engineer W. Ityles, City Attorney Paul Selzer, Manager William D. Williams and perhaps a couple of councilmen will be meeting at that time. The public is welcome, it was pointed out.

GOING [illegible] — This familiar landmark, the Palms Cafe at 1927 Palm Dr., may soon be only a memory. The city board of appeals in a statement this week said: ". . . that the Palms . . . be demolished and removed from its site; work to begin within 11 days, and to be completed within 60 days." Property is owned by Philip Barzow. (Sentinel photo).

APPEALS BOARD DECISION

Palms Building Ordered Demolished

The city board of appeals this week issued an order that the building formerly housing the Palms Cafe, 1927 Palm Dr., be demolished and debris removed from the site.

The order said the work must start within 11 days from July 31 and must be completed within 60 days.

The building, owned by Philip Barzow, was condemned by the city building department several months ago. Barzow had contested the building department decision and the matter has been the subject of several hearings.

AT A SESSION last week, Barzow was represented by his attorney, Matthew Richman, of Palm Springs. Richman told the board Barzow had not complied with a request that core tests of the building be submitted.

He said an engineering firm, MacIntosh and MacIntosh, had submitted a written report to the board after the firm's examination, saying the building "was structurally sound," but in need of certain repairs. The firm, Richman said, considered its findings conclusive unless the cty could submit additional evidence.

THE APPEALS board had also requested that Barzow submit one or more firm bids from a contractor that the building could be brought up to code at

Sheriff Reports on June Activity

In a report to the city for June, the sheriff's department said 38 offenses had been reported in Desert Hot Springs, of which 13 were found to be unfounded.

Leading the offenses reported was the charge of disturbing the peace with eight, of which only six were actual. Next in frequency were four reports of prowlers, all of them unfounded.

The department reported it had made two adult and two juvenile arrests, investigated three non-injury traffic accidents and nine miscellaneous traffic violations.

Offenses reported to the department, many of them unfounded, ranged from arson to plain drunk charges.

Youth Directors Set for Meeting

Plans for a fund raising luau will be the subject of a special meeting of the board of directors of the Desert Hot Springs Youth Club, Inc.

The meeting will be held at 8 p.m. Aug. 10 at Coffee's Pools.

Everyone interested in aiding the young people of the community are invited to attend, William Schultz, president of the group said this week.

MISSING—14 PAIR OF BOYS' TROUSERS

Missing—14 pair of boys' jeans.

Sheriff's deputies today are investigating the apparent theft of 14 pair of boys' trousers from the home of Bob Lee, 6012 Desert View.

The sheriff's department said the theft had apparently occurred between the evening of July 26 and the morning of July 30, although a definite time has not been established.

It appeared to authorities that nothing else was missing.

'GOOD LUCK' — Miss Desert Hot Springs (Rosemarie Kolbert), left, was on hand Monday to wish the best of luck to the first entrant in the new Miss Desert Hot Springs contest to be held in October. She is Miss Pamella Ann Miller, 17, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Miller, 17-088 Keith St. Miss Miller, a senior in high school, weighs 103 pounds, with vital statistics of 34-22-34. First Entrant Seeks Miss DHS Title

The 1967 Miss Desert Hot Springs contest attracted its first entrant this week, pretty 17 year old Pamella Ann Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Miller of 17-088 Keith St.

On hand to greet her and wish her well was the winner of the 1966 title, Miss Rosemarie Kolbert.

Sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce this year, the date has not yet been selected but it will be in October, according to Don English, chamber vice president and producer of the show, and Ernie Blatz, co-chairman of the event.

ENGLISH said a site will also have to be selected soon. Last year's event was held in the 8th Street Community Center on Labor Day.

English said all girls from Desert Hot Springs area will be welcomed as contestants. This will include contestants from the various areas south and east of the city, North Palm Springs, or any area from Thousand Palms to Painted Hills on the north side of Interstate 10.

Lake in Our Future?

Lou Adelman, Chamber of Commerce vice president and head of the organization's advertising department, admits it may all be just a dream, but he thinks its worth a little study.

He said he had received a suggestion from Edwin F Clements of Palm Springs, a former flood control project engineer who believes the building of Wide Canyon dam just east of Desert Hot Springs would "provide a tremendous opportunity for a lake recreation area to be built along this man-made body of water."

Clements suggests, Adelman reported, that a lake 2,500 feet long and 400 feet wide could be made available if representations were made to the proper state and county authorities.

"The thousands of visitors who come here each year would possibly be so excited by this new and unexpected fresh water and the fun it offers they might want to stay and become permanent residents," Adelman said.

Adelman said he believed investigation should be continued with the proper authorities to determine if such a project might be possible.

Ken's Richfield in New Location

Ken Hennershct, owner of Ken's Richfield Service, and his staff are still getting acquainted with their brand new quarters at 12-775 Palm Dr.

The new station was erected by the Richfield Oil Co. and opened for business on Aug. 1. A grand opening will be held at a later date.

The station is managed by Dennis Cunningham.

The station is offering several special inducements to old and new customers in its new location. Details will be found in the advertisement elsewhere in today's Desert Sentinel.

BUS HEARING IS SET HERE FOR AUG. 29

William W. Dunlop, secretary to the Public Utilities Commission, today set 10 a.m. Tuesday, Aug. 29 as the date and time for a public hearing in the Desert Hot Springs Chamber of Commerce attempt to obtain bus service for this city.

The hearing will be held in the conference room in the city hall.

The chamber, backed up by the city, some time ago filed the complaint with the commission in an attempt to get John C. Hastie, owner of Twentynine Palms Stages, to provide bus service in and out of Desert Hot Springs to Palm Springs and other points.

Dunlop said the hearing here would be conducted by Examiner DeWolf of the commission. The hearing is open to the public and both chamber and city officials are urging a large attendance by all interested in obtaining bus service here.

Building in July Picks Up

Volume of building permits issued last month here showed a big increase over the all-time low figure for July 1966, according to figures in the office of City Building Inspector J. Lyle Brickey.

Issuing of permits for four single family dwellings worth $50,750 brought the month's total to $68,215, far above the $13,100 for July 1966.

OTHER MAJOR building activity included a therapy pool for $2,740; swimming and therapy pool, $8,500; bedroom, patio, carport addition, $3,000.

Permits of miscellaneous nature added the rest to the month's total of $68,215.

Total revenue for the building department was $503.22.

TOTAL OF permits issued for the first seven months this year now stands at $548,636.

While this is still considerably lower than the $881,818 recorded up to this time in 1966, city officials, builders and real estate people here are optimistic that the worst of the financial "tight money" situation is now over and building will continue an upward climb.

B-Bar-H Developers Win Off-Site Battle

RIVERSIDE (CNA) — B-Bar-H developers won two victories this week to get conditional use permits for off-site subdivision signs to advertise the Desert Hot Springs development.

Tuesday the county planning commission approved an off-site sign permit for the northeast corner of Indian Avenue and Dillon Road on the recommendation its hearing board.

Wednesday the hearing board recommended the granting of the second sign for the north east corner of Indian Avenue and Interstate 10.

WHEN THE hearing board approved the first sign two weeks ago it made a finding that the existing illegal signs at the corner should not effect the B-Bar-H sign plan for the corner. Originally the board had continued public hearings to determine if other signs at the corner were legal.

If the other signs were illegal the B-Bar-H sign could not be placed on the corner because it would be too close to the other signs under the rules of the county zoning ordinance.

When the board hesitated on giving the approval — considering not to allow the B-Bar-H sign to be constructed until the illegal signs were removed — Lewis Payne, B-Bar-H developer, charged that it would be unfair for the county to penalize him because of other people's illegal acts.

PAYNE SAID other people in the area put up signs whenever they wanted while he was

NEXT AVCC OPEN HOUSE SET OCT. 15

W. Guy Steele, president of the board of directors of Angel View, announced there will be no open house until Sunday, Oct. 15, at which time there will be dedication ceremonies for the outdoor swimming pool.

However, visiting hours are daily from 2 to 4 p.m. and all friends of Angel View are welcome to visit during these hours, he said.

There are parking facilities in the rear of the new wing, with entrance through the south rear door to the hospital.

AVCC Gets $4,000 Check from 40 et 8 Voitures

In a joint effort of Grande Voiture of California, Forty and Eight, and Palm Springs Voiture Local No. 1341, a $4,000 contribution has been made to Angel View Crippled Children's Foundation, Inc., for construction of a swimming pool at the Miracle Hill facility.

The state organization is known as a grand voiture and a local chapter as a voiture locale.

Forty and Eight is a veterans' organization composed of members of the American Legion who have rendered outstanding service to that organization. Organized in Philadelphia, Pa., in 1920, it now has 74,000 members nationally and 3,000 in California. Two of its major programs are child welfare and nurses' training.

Funds for the swimming pool were obtained from individual contributions of California voyageurs (members) to a special Grande Voiture Child Welfare fund. Requests for funds are made by local chapters where financial scope of a project is more than local chapter can handle alone.

PROPOSED LOOP—Pioneer Pass Road, from Pioneertown to Big Bear country, has an important part to play in area tourism. It has long been the dream of desert and mountain residents. The direct route from the desert via Indian Avenue, Twentynine Palms Highway, Morongo Valley, Yucca Valley and up the mountain to the pass through Pioneertown will afford tourists a drive through the great loop from Desert Hot Springs, Riverside, Big Bear, Yucca Valley and back to the desert area. This week, Pioneer Loop Assn. officials renewed efforts to make the road a reality. This aerial photo shows the existing road, which is in poor shape, up to Round Valley and the Big Bear country. Don English and Kelly Shugart are members of the loop committee. (Hi-Desert Star photo).

Drive for Pioneer Loop Due to Get Started Soon

Pioneer Pass Road, from the Twentynine Palms Highway through Yucca Valley and Pioneertown to Big Bear has long been the dream of both the low and high desert residents.

The road, when developed, will provide a direct route from the great Big Bear country to the high desert and Coachella Valley region. Desert Hot Springs, being on the north end of the valley, is in an opportune location for the pass route.

County and state officials have agreed to join in the drive to get a road built between Yucca Valley, Pioneertown and Big Bear.

Members of the Pioneer Loop Assn. project committee include representatives from Desert Hot Springs, North Palm Springs, Palm Springs, Cabazon, Banning, Beaumont, Redlands, Riverside, Lake Arrowhead, Big Bear, Pioneertown, Yucca Valley, Joshua Tree and Morongo Valley.

Don English, representing the local Chamber of Commerce, and Kelly Shugart from city hall, are members of the coordinator committee.

Highlanders to Appear at Banning Bowl

MacPherson Highlanders Bag Pipe Band, drummers and dancers, will present an unusual program at Playhouse Bowl, Repplier Park, Banning at 8 p.m. Aug. 3.

The band was formed in 1961 as the offshoot of a Los Angeles group and is composed of men and women from a number of communities in this area.

Neil Fetter of Norco is pipe major, Ian Millar of Alhambra is drum major and Betty Thorpe is dance director. It is a hobby for those participating and they meet each Monday night in Fontana to rehearse.

The full band with dancers and drummers will participate and play and dance to Scottish tunes. Funds derived from programs are used to purchase costumes and equipment. Two members of the group are from Beaumont, Earl Woodley and A. H. MacLean.

Hosts for the evening are members of the Junior Woman's Club and Toastmasters will take over during intermission. No charge is made but a free-will offering will be taken, according to Gene Brinton, Playhouse Bowl chairman.

"The only go-getter in some offices is the fellow they send out for coffee."

AVCC AIDES — Jo Anne Rempfer of Oneida, S.D. and Carole Marsh of Agar, S.D., have been spending the summer in Desert Hot Springs residing with Carole's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Asmussen of 6414 4th St. These young ladies had a chance to come to California for the summer and in searching for interesting and worthwhile work, they contacted Angel View with the result that they have spent the entire summer working as physical therapy aides under the direction of Tom Klaras, R.P.T. and O.T. and his assistant, Faye Owens. They have been traveling back and forth to work in this modern day version of the "Surrey with the Fringe on Top." The girls will leave at the end of August to return to South Dakota to attend college. They are commended by AVCC officials for the work they did in helping the children of Angel View.

invited a panel of government dignitaries to a special meeting held in San Bernardino last Monday.

The entire group accepted Haskell's invitation to be members of an executive committee to guide the project.

The "Old National Forest Highway Program" came under lengthy discussion as more than nine miles of the proposed route from Johnson Valley to Baines Lake are in the National Forest area.

The Rim of the World Highway and the Palms to Pines Highway were built under the program, it was stated.

Efforts, according to PLA officials, will be directed toward establishing a precise route and creating a passable road so that utilization of the route can be presented to county and state agencies.

Those attending included: Don B. Miller, of Campbell and Miller Associates engineering firm; Roy A. Hays, of Colton Construction; Don Bauer, State Forestry Service; Ronald McCormick, Forestry Service; Ray Gregory, representing Assemblyman Stewart Hinckley.

Ross Dana, county supervisor; Walt Campbell, County Road Department; M. A. Nicholas, San Bernardino County Road Department; Charles Goodspeed, representing Congressman Jerry Pettis; Howard L. trying to comply with the county ordinances and obtain a permit. He commented that he might have been better off to put up the sign without seeking the permit like others had done.

The board, while considering both signs two weeks ago, approved the first but continued the second because there was a confusion on the ownership of the property.

Payne told the board he had rented the second sign site from the owner of the gas station there.

The planning department, however, told the board that the property was listed as being owned by the Shell Oil Co. and the company had notified the department that it had not been aware of the application.

PAYNE, APPARENTLY becoming irritated by the red tape, told the board he had the canceled check for the property and was only trying to get the B-Bar-H Ranch on its feet.

"I am getting a little tired of having to run down here every two weeks on these signs only to have the hearings continued," he concluded.

Payne failed to show up at Wednesday's meeting as well as presenting the board with any statement clearing up the ownership title problem.

The board, in approving the permit, added a condition that Payne had to present a statement from the real owner — whoever it was — that permission was granted for the sign to be placed on the property.
