Comedy, Fantasy, Drama on the Screen

"Down to the Sea in Ships" at the Gladstone returns Lionel Barrymore to the stage in story of whaling days on the Atlantic. Richard Widmark, cast as the ship's doctor, and David Rockwell as the first mate, also shown here.

In "Family Homecoming" at the Michigan, Fred MacMurray is accompanied that the three children of the attractive widow he married (Claudette Colbert) have to go along on the wedding trip.

In "Miss Tatlock's Millions," the Drive-In comedy, John Lund and Jane Bryan play the part of a man who inherits a fortune.

In "Mother is a Freshman" at the Capitol, Loretta Young, Van Johnson and Ruby Yelton provide a three-star comedy.

Leana Patton and Ruby Yelton are up in the world—with an actor from Fred First—all three stars in "Dear to My Heart" at the Southtown.

HACKETT IN HOLLYWOOD

Pioneertown New Resort For Work Weary Actors

By WALL HACKETT (General Hollywood Bureau) HOLLYWOOD, June 18.—Movie stars who want to get away from it all have naturally gone to Pioneertown, Calif., for a vacation...

"I take from six to seven months for hair to grow shoulder-length, so it'll be assumed before a camera is ready for action..."

Letter to the studio pointing out the error: "They don't use those things in that day, he'll christen. They're what the wardrobe man has to try to avoid!"
