Raft at Loew's, Kettles Top Paramount

LOEW'S—Besides starring in "Outpost of Morocco," due today, George Raft had something to say about its production, for his firm made the film. Many of its scenes actually were shot in Morocco and the French Foreign Legion itself appears in sequences.

It is an adventure film in which Raft acts as Legion officer in love with the daughter of a sheik who leads an uprising against the French. Marie Windsor plays the latter. Akim Tamiroff and others support.

James Mason and Barbara Bel Geddes in "Caught" also is on the bill.

PARAMOUNT—Those "Egg and I" parents return in "Ma and Pa Kettle," checking in today, with Marjorie Main and Percy Kilbride again in the title roles. This new film is tied to an up-to-the-minute radio slogan contest, which is won by Pa. So the family wins a new house, run on electronic push-button plan. A mean neighbor says Pa sole his slogan, and eviction looms. Ma fights.

"Alias Nick Beal," with Ray Milland, Audrey Totter and Thomas Mitchell, will be the extra feature.

REGENT—Two popular Abbott and Costello films of other seasons will be offered as re-issues, starting today. They are "Pardon My Sarong" and "It Ain't Hay."

CAPITOL — The melodramatic "Red Canyon," with Ann Blyth and Howard Duff, will open today, along with "Parole, Inc." with Michael O'Shea and Turhan Bey.

FABULOUS WARDROBE

Hollywood — Rosalind Russell often nominated on any list of "best-dressed women," wears 19 costumes, designed by Jean Louis, in her starring role in Columbia's "My Next Husband."

HEAD OF HOUSE ON GUARD

As Percy Kilbride quakes, Marjorie Main is set to resist eviction in "Ma and Pa Kettle," set for Paramount today.

Community Players Reopen

TWO "repeat" performances of "John Loves Mary," the Norman Krasna comedy, which broke attendance records at the Community Playhouse in the regular season, will be given tonight and tomorrow night, in response, according to Director Robert Stevens, to many requests.

Virtually the same cast that appeared before will present the play, which deals in a humorous way with complications resulting when a GI returns home to his sweetheart —with a wife. He entered a "temporary marriage" as a favor to a buddy. Troubles pile up.

Navy Band Due At Eastman

THE Navy will take over the Eastman today, with two performances by the world famous United States Navy Band under its distinguished conductor, Lt. Comdr. Charles Brendler.

A special student's matinee, offering music chosen especially for younger Rochester, will start at 3 p. m. For the 8:15 p. m. program, the list follows:

Fanfare ..... Herald Trumpets
National Anthem
Overture "Donna Diana" ..... Emil N. Von Reznicek
Hoe Down, From Rodeo ..... Aaron Copeland
Fiddle Faddle ..... Leroy Anderson
Cornet Trio: "The Three Bluejackets" ..... Ernest Williams
Soloists: Gordon Wisley, Frank Scimeca and Harold Wells
Trombone Solo: "Fantastic Fantasy" ..... Arthur Pryor
Soloist: Homer Phillips
Till Eulenspiegel's Merry Pranks ..... Richard Strauss

INTERMISSION

Ride Of The Valkyries ..... Richard Wagner
Emperor Waltz ..... Johann Strauss
Tenor Aria: "Vesti La Giubba" From the Opera "Pagliacci" ..... Ruggiero Leoncavallo
"Granda" ..... Augustine Lara
Soloist: Ben Mitchel Morris
Gaite Parisienne ..... Jacques Offenbach

RIVALS GET TOGETHER

Hollywood—not to prove that silent knives in the back out Hollywood way, Gene Autry is filming practically all of his current film, "The Cowboy and the Indians," at Pioneertown, Calif. Roy Rogers owns a good slice of the place.

ACTOR WALKS INTO PUNCH

Hollywood—The very first day that Donald Woods walked onto the set of "Barbary Pirate," he walked into a right punch, delivered, for a scene in the picture, of course, by Ross Ford.
