On Auction Block

A DREAM GOES HAYWIRE
Pioneertown, once the dream of movies to reproduce the Western scene goes on the auction block today, Dec. 17. Here's a chance to buy a whole town and revive its former glory as a replica of old West when pounding hoofs on Main Street and shots from the Red Dog marked its gay career.

DHS Rest Home

A Rest Home in DHS which has been a crying need for years seems now to be assured. The location selected is ideal at 5th St. and Sunset Drive near the Bath House, East of Blue Heaven Rancho. Mrs. Annie Rouse of Palm Springs, founder and owner of a rest home in Bell, California, was so impressed with our health facilities she purchased property at above location and anticipates starting construction soon. We are fortunate in having a person of Mrs. Rouse's experience sponsor the institution. She has operated and owned successful Rest Homes and Sanatoriums in the state since 1925. No one could be better qualified. Harry Chester with A. A. Burrow, next door to Post Office, sold Mrs. Rouse the property.

At 7 o'clock we will be thinking of Jesus of Nazareth — (in distinction to Jesus of Bethlehem, as it were.)
We wish to educate our children all we can to the religious significance of Christmas. Therefore the Board has selected Christmas Eve at 7, as the hour for a service, officially the worship program of the Sunday School. Following this program we plan a very brief, informal dedication of our 'Garden of Prayer.' We believe you will like the 'Garden.' The public is invited.
Remember choir rehearsal Wednesday at 7:30; and Prayer Church Thursday at 7:30 (this week) at the parsonage.
The new circle of the W.S.C.S. will meet Thursday (today) at 1:30 at the home of Mrs. Jake Smith on Second Street.
On Friday the pastor and one lay delegate will attend a special session of the Annual Conference in Los Angeles. We are to vote on a matter of securing approximately a half million dollars from the government to aid in establishing a new hospital in Arcadia.
Our deepest sympathy to Jerry Storm on the loss of Jean.
