LIBERAL ARTS CONFERENCE

'Break-Through' Sought By Artist, Author Says

LANCE ARROWHEAD—The artist and author said a "break-through" in his work is not inevitable, but it is possible to achieve it through a combination of factors. He discussed his experiences in the liberal arts program at the University of California, San Diego, and how he has found a way to break through to a new level of understanding.

The trouble with abstract painting is that it is not a science. It is an art. It is a way of expressing oneself. It is a way of communicating with others. It is a way of finding oneself. It is a way of discovering the world. It is a way of creating a new world. It is a way of living. It is a way of being. It is a way of existing. It is a way of feeling. It is a way of thinking. It is a way of knowing. It is a way of understanding. It is a way of loving. It is a way of being loved. It is a way of being understood. It is a way of being understood.
