Plan to Retain Parking Lot Due Friday

BANISTOW—Will Davidson, owner of the lot, has been voluntarily considering it for sale with enough money to his assignment, this would require a Main Street parking lot for $274,400.

Or will the lot be closed to the public after the current parking problem in downtown Barstow as the city expires on Friday's session.

Barstow businessmen are expected to provide the answer at a special meeting of the Chamber of Commerce's Merchants' Committee Friday at 7 p.m. at the Chamber office.

Neil W. Randolph, chairman of the Board of Directors of the Chamber, said that a plan to keep the lot open for at least three months until after the Christmas season will be presented at Friday's session.

A formula will be presented, including Randolph, whereby each merchant on Main Street east of Second Street and Barstow Road will be assessed a fee based on, based on the total, estimated of each business.

The voluntary assessment will range from five cents to 50 cents per foot per month. Merchants who are starting a new membership drive or temporary, however, will be charged the rate for the lot.

If merchants can agree on a plan to be approved by the Barstow Freeway and National Trust Highway.
